Much Excitement in Noblesville Over the Trial of Mrs. Sykes for Murder.

The Defendant Takes the Stand in Her Own Defense-Child Found Dead in Its Crib-Funeral of Father Munson at Wabash.

INDIANA.

The Woman Who Shot Danforth Says Sho Was Defending Her Home.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. Noblesville, April 12.-This was the fifth day of the Sykes marder trial in the Hamilton Circuit Court. The courtroom was crowded. The defendant gave her version of the shooting. She said that Danforth, the man shot, attempted to open her door and badly frightened her and her children. She thought his intention was to commit some assault on herself; that she opened the door and endeavored to get him to go away, but he grabbed her and attempted to drag her from her house. Her daughter handed her the revolver with which the shooting was done. While engaged in a struggle with him she fired. She adhered to this statement and was not materially shaken by the rigid cross-examination to which she was subjected. The evidence was closed at 10:30 o'clock this morning and the case will be submitted to the jury to-morrow.

Indorsed Shockney for Governor.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. Union City, Ind., April 12.-A massmeeting of the Republican voters of this city was held at Rosse's Opera-house tonight for the purpose of nominating a city ticket. After the work of the convention was over an enthusiastic Republican club was organized, with over two hundred members. A resolution was adopted indorsing our fellow-townsman, Hon. Theo-dore Shockney for Governor. The favor-ite was escorted to the stage, and, inspired by the enthusiastic surroundings, he discussed many of the questions which will divide the two parties coming campaign. Senator Shockney is held in high esteem by the citizens of this locality regardless of party, having been Mayor of this city. Representative of the county and joint Senator for the district. No one attending this meeting could mistake the confidence reposed in the Senator by the people of his home. Taking it all in all the meeting was a great success.

Cleveland Has Wayne County. RICHMOND, April 12,-The Democrats of Wayne county met in mass convention at Cambridge City to-day. After appointing delegates to the different Democratic con-

Resolved, That the delegates elected by the Democracy of Wayne county to the Democratic State convention are hereby instructed to use all honorable means to secure the election of delegates to the national Democratic convention at Chicago, who will pledge themselves to the support of Grover Cleveland for president of the United States.

No effort was made by the few friends of Gray present to secure the indersement of the convention for him and there was comparatively little opposition to the reso-Colt Kicked His Skull Off.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. Marion, April 12.-When the farm bel rang for supper at the home of Irvine Love, four miles east of here, last night, Orville, the fifteen-year-old son, did not respond. The father called for the boy, who was finishing his evening work, and, receiving no answer, started in search of the tardy one. He found him lying on the ground in the barn-yard. He was unconscious and was bleeding from a would in the head. They took him to the house, but the skull was crushed so as to lay bare the brains, and he died in thirty minutes. There were no witnesses to the accident, and how the boy was struck will probably never be known. It is supposed, however, that the colt which he had been watering struck him with its fore-foot.

Indiana Democrats Pick Their Men.

Special to the Indianapons Journal. GREENCASTLE, April 12.- The Democratic senatorial and joint Representative conventions were held in this city to-day. Montgomery and Putnam counties constitute the senatorial district under the gerrymander, while the addition of Clay completes the joint Representative district. The Montgomery delegates were divided in their support of two candidates from that county. James M. Sellers and Michael J. Carroll. The Sellers men were bent on scalping Mr. Carroll, which they finally succeeded in doing after forty ballots had been taken. For joint Representative Putnam presented the name of Hon. Frank D. Ader, who has already served twice in the Legislature. His nommation followed by acclamation.

Greenfield Republicans Nominate. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

GREENFIELD, April 12.—The Republicans met in convention at the court-house tonight. William R. Hough was elected chairman. John S. Carson was nomi nated for city clerk, although the Mayor, A. J Heron, a Democrat, says there is no vacancy. The city attorney, Charles G. Offatt, also a Democrat, gives his opinion that there is a vacancy. For councilmen the nominations were: First ward, Joseph W. Cooper; Second, John K. Henby: Third, Jasper H. Mouldon. They are all thoroughly competent and successful business. oughly competent and successful business men. Three cheers were given for General Harrison, his administration, renomination RUNNING RACES. Riley Easily Wins the Owners' Handleap at Memphis in 2:03 1-4.

MEMPHIS. Tenn., April 12. - The bad weather again kept the crowd away from the races. The track was very heavy. Riley's performance in the Owners' handicap showed him to be in fine condition, and the great long-distance, heavy-track son of Longfellow is sure to capture plenty of money this season. A bundle of "boodle" was dropped on Bettina in the fourth, the Scoggans playing her heavily.

First Race-Six furlongs. Jim Head won; Kinney second, Parapet third. Time, 1:21. Second Race-Four furlongs. King Lee won easily by two open lengths; Coquette beat Revenue for the place. Time, :53½.

Third Race—Owners' handicap; one and one-eighth mile. Riley came in an easy winner by a length, while First Lap was the same distance ahead of Faithful, who managed by hard work to secure third.

Fourth Race-Seven furlongs. Sull Ross won from Resement by half a length; Costa Rica third. Time, 1:36. Fifth Race-One mile. Marie K. won by a nose from Foxall; Sunny Brook third. Sixth Race-Seven furlongs. Red Prince won by a head; Van Zant second, Powers third. Time, 1:3514.

HORRORS OF YELLOW FEVER.

Scenes at Santos, Brazil, Described by Howard Appleton, Who Fell'a Victim Himself.

NEW YORK, April 12.-Mrs. Laura V. Appleton's eldest son, Howard F. Appleton, has died of yellow fever, and been buried at sea, off the coast of Brazil. Mrs. Appleton is a daughter of old John Anderson, the tobacconist, who died leaving a fortune of $9,000,000. She recently received $500,000 as a compromise of a suit which she brought against her brother, John Charles Anderson. Young Appleton was twenty-two years old, and it was his love for adventure and the sea which led to his early death. Howard started on his first trip to Brazil just before Thanksgiving day, and returned in the latter part of January. He liked the trip so well that he insisted upon going again. The yellow fever had broken out at the Santos, and his father and mother both objected to his going back. The letters of young Appleton gave a vivid description of the scenes attending the terrible scourge in Brazil. In one letter, written at Santos on March 7, he said: "Under no circumstances whatever could I be induced to visit this accursed spot again, if the good Lord spares me to return to New York. I wish I could describe the sights I witness here day after day, and, also, my feeling. The population of Santos is about five thousand, and two weeks ago the death rate was from 150 to 200 per day. It is now down to 50 a day. The boatmen row around from one ship to another removing the dead in plain white boxes. I have seen fully a hundred carried off in that way, and always received a peculiar shock on each occasion. One feels as though the pit of his stomach was falling out, and you experience a general used-up feeling bordering on total collapse. "I saw one poor fellow thrown out in the streets in a rain-storm. He was alive when they put him out. I don't know whether he pulled through. At any rate, he was not there this morning. They say that is a common occurrence with people here. They are devoid of all feeling. I am in the best possible health and intend to take good care of myself."

NEW LABOR ORGANIZATION.

The International Federation of Machinery Trades Organized at Chicago.

CHICAGO, April 12.- A new labor organization, to be called the International Federation of Machinery Trades, was organized here to-day with a membership of fifty thousand. After a warm debate it was decided by the organization not to allow anything referring to politics in the constitution. Late to-night the constitution of the organization was adopted and officials elected. The most important clause of the constitution is the one declaring that nine hours shall be a days' work. When this shall go into effect it will be decided at the next convention, which will be held at Chicago on Oct. 3. The following are the officers of the new organiza-tion: John A. Penton, of Detroit, presi-dent and secretary; N. Morse, of New York, vice-president; W. J. McFeely, jr., of Chi-cago, treasurer; J. B. Edwards, of Springfield, Ill., chairman of the executive board, the other members being D. Schantz, of Chicago, and C. A. McKenzie, of New York.

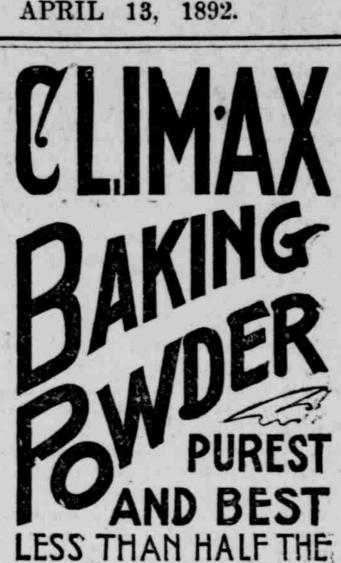

Opiates Cure Insanity.

DETROIT, April 12.-A remarkable cure by means of opiates is attracting much attention here. About eighteen months ago an insane man, named George Sale, was picked up at Ecorse and sent to the county-house. Several days ago he became very violent. and was given opiates. He fell into a sound sleep, in which he remained about four days. Yesterday morning he woke up and was perfectly rational. Sale stated that he was a farmer, and owned seven hundred acres of land near Bowling Green, Ky. He said he had been in an insane asylum near his home for some time, but did not knew how long, and had finally escaped. Dr. Bennett telegraphed to Bowling Green, and to-day received an answer saying that Sale's statements were Bore of the "Prince's" Evil Doings. DETROIT, Mich., April 12. - "Prince" Michael Mills and Eliza Courts appeared in the Recorder's Court this morning with the intention of giving new bail. The bonds men failed to appear, though, and the couple were taken back to jail. Ellen Rollinson, a girl eighteen years old, who represented "temperance" while she was with the Michaelites, but who deserted them to return to her parents at Toronto, has come back here to accuse Mills of a most beinous crime. She arrived this morning, accompanied by her father, and went to police headquarters, where she told her story. The girl states that Mills eriminally assaulted her, and that Eliza Courts held her while the "Prince" com-field, Ill., in 1831.

The publication of the divorce proceedings between Rev. Oliver W. Jennings and his wife has brought to the front the friends of Mrs. Jennings, who tell a somewhat different story from that of the young minister. They support the wife's allegation that he used profane language to her, and say that he was suspicious of her every action, even compelling her to forbid the servant girl's "beau" the house. It seems that this is not the minister's first matrimonial venture. When he was at the romantic age, a student at Hanover, Mamie Rial, a young Kentucky orphan, reputed to be worth considerable money, attended the school. Though she was but sixteen years old, they one day slipped away and were secretly married. When the college authorities found it out there was trouble, and both were compelled to leave the school. She afterwards applied for, and secured, a divorce, alleging cruelty. The story then came out that he had been disappointed in the effort to get control of her money. She is now a teacher in Louisville. The court yesterday issued an order that the child in question, in the pending suit, be brought to Marion county, and kept here until the litigation is decided.

An Easter Offering. The suggestion that there are perhaps 3,500 mothers in the city who would give $1 each as an Easter offering towards the debt of the Y. M. C. A., is a timely one. The Journal would like to see 3,500 fathers do the same thing, so as to give the Association funds enough with which to build a swimming-pool and add some very much needed apparatus to the gymnasium. The pastors can get a goodly sum in this way if they will press the matter a little, and it is hoped that they will do so.

Expert Hering's Pay.

The other day Controller Woollen said: "The Journal was wrong when it said yesterday that Mr. Rudolph Hering, the sewer expert, took $2,000 of the city's money with him when he went back to New York city. Mr. Hering took none of the city's money with him." Mr. Woollen had a peculiar smile on his face when he made the above remark. Can it be that he does not intend to pay Mr. Hering's bill of $500 a week and expensesf game of the spring series for the National League championship was played here today between the Boston and Washington teams. Although the weather was bitter cold, between six and seven thousand people tilled the grand-stands and bleachers, and many were compelled to witness the game from the out-field. Boston backed up Clarkson's effective pitching in an almost faultless manner, and hit the ball hard toward the latter part of the game. The Washington, in some respects, showed great improvement over the previous clubs that have represented this city. After the St. Louis, April 12.-Anson's Chicago Sportsman's Park, this afternoon. John L. Sullivan, Lillian Russell and Mayor Noonan were among those in President Von der Ahe's box. The visitors showed better team work, and outplayed St. Louis in every particular. Glasscock, who has been ill, made a poor showing at short for the home team. Gumbert had his finger injured in the third inning, stopping a hot hit ball, and gave way to Hutchinson.

New York, 5; Philadelphia, 4. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. the League championship season here could hardly be called a glittering success. Owing to the blustering weather and increased price the attendance was kept down to less than five thousand people, and to intensify the depression the Philas delphias lost through two errors by Hallman. The New Yorkers fielded superbly and were in the game from start to finish.
